

2017 Super Club Invitational Tournament

Saturday 25th February, B & M Centre, Central Energy Trust Arena, Palmerston North

GENERAL INFORMATION

Managers Meeting

A managers meeting will take place at 9.00am for all teams, managers are asked to convene at the registration desk at this time for a short briefing.

Court Usage

All courts will be available from 9.00am for teams to warm-up. Courts 2, 4 & 5 will be used for games for the duration of the tournament based in the B & M Centre and the Ball Hall, which are adjacent to each other and easily accessible. During games the courts not in use can be used for warm-ups and cool downs, please be mindful of ongoing games being played on any neighbouring courts and any activity i.e. players, coaches, umpires, officials and spectators.

Team Bench

Team benches will be positioned on either side of the score bench, the team listed first on the draw will sit to the right of the score bench. Teams are asked to make sure bags and balls are behind the bench and drink bottles are to be kept under the seats while games are being played in the interests of health and safety.

Bench Officials

Bench officials will be allocated to games subject to availability.

Umpires

Umpires will be allocated to all games during the tournament. Allocations for the Games will be appointed by the NZUDG.

First Aid

All teams are expected to bring their own first aid kit, there will be a central first aid kit and ice available if required, please ask at the registration desk. If an injury occurs, we ask teams complete an injury reporting form available from the registration desk. Please note there will be no physiotherapist on site.

Presentations

A short presentation will take place at the end of the tournament near the registrations desk.
